

Vocational Agriculture

FFA

NEWS

Road to Progress

Supper Opens Year's Activities

Barbecue supper at Parker's begins F. F. A. year of activity.

At this supper meeting the group elected the F. F. A. officers for the year. The following are the officers:

RONALD BISSETTE, president;
HARVEY DENTON, secretary;
WILLIAM LAMM, treasurer;
BILLY BUNN, reporter;
JAMES WILSON, Watch Dog.

FRESHMEN

Vocational agricultural freshmen are learning the F. F. A. creed, the first traditional requirement for membership. They are also standing by for the initiation to be.

ENROLLMENT

The enrollment for the F. F. A. chapter this year is 32 freshmen, 20 sophomores, and 12 juniors and seniors.

The juniors and seniors have begun the chapter's year by making rat traps to be distributed in the town's business district.

FEDERATION MEETING

The Nash county F. F. A. chapters convened for their first federation meeting last Tuesday afternoon at Coopers school, at which time the program of contests and schedule of meetings for the year were planned.

CONTESTS SCHEDULED ARE

Shop Follows Classwork

Ninth and tenth grade shop classes will alternate with study hall for fall-spring terms.

The tenth grade agriculture class is having shop for the fall semester and will have study hall in the spring. The ninth grade who are now having study hall each day will use this period in the spring for their shop work.

This alternate sequence is in effort to meet requirements laid down by the State Department.

1. Parliamentary procedure Middlesex, October 20.
2. Crop contest----Watson Seed Farms, December 15.
3. Tool identification-Dillon Supply Co., Rocky Mt., February 16.
4. Livestock judging-Red Oak, April 20.

THE BEST IN

Sporting Goods
EM-JAY

Wilson,

N.C.

It's HEILIG-MEYERS

and

Sleep Sets

Wilson,

N.C.