Fortune weaves a new path each year for those who have left dear old Bailey High and walked out into life with willing hearts and open minds. Those who have left the threshold of our alma mater are traveling many different roads, all pointing toward success.

COLLEGE STUDENTS

Seniors who are furthering their education are FRANKLIN BROWN, OWEN STRICKLAND, R. O. PACE, RUDOLPH MANNING, EUNICE PERRY, IRENE GLOVER, JEAN WELLS, JACKIE VICKE, and ROOSEVELT WARREN—all going to Atlantic Christian College in Wilson. TOMMY GLOVER is going to State.

WORKING

Public workers are MARY LOU LAMM, working at Thurston's in Wilson; REBA M. WHITLEY, Heilig-Myeres in Wilson; RUBY PERRY, Lamm's Department Store in Bailey; LUCILLE BRASWELL, telephone office in Rocky Mount; F. D. LAMM, Leggitt & Myres Tobacco Company in Rocky Mount; MARY ANN MILLER PACE, Revenue Department in Raleigh; LA RUE WINSTEAD, law office in Raleigh; SARAH PEELE, State Highway Department in Raleigh.

WITH UNCLE SAM

Three seniors decided they couldn't fight enough at home and joined the Air Force and Navy. C. D. MULLEN and GENE FINCH are in the Air Force. GENE is stationed at Lackland Air Base, and PERCY JUNIOR MURRAY is in the Navy, stationed now in California.

AT HOME

"Homing pigeons" of the class of 1952 are CATHERINE BROWN, KAY FERRELL, ERNEST GRIFFIN, JACKIE LAMM, EARL MANNING, RUTH WILLIAMS, MARGARET GLOVER (Mrs. Bobby Ferrell), ELDA RAE BAILEY and VIRGINIA LILES.

DORIS JOYNER has returned to school. She is serving as editor of the Bailey News and working with the journalism class.

OTHER ALUMNI

CHARLES STOTT and his English bride, RENEE, arrived in town in August. They came by boat to New York and flew to Raleigh. After their visit is complete, they plan to move to Greenville, South Carolina, where CHARLES is stationed.

KIETH and BONNIE PHILLIPS arrived in Bailey from Minersville, Pennsylvania, the first of July and were followed by CHARLES D. JR., MARY, and CHARLES D. III, better known as PHIL, who moved from Washington, D.C. The two Phillips boys were employed by the A & P Company before they came to Bailey to begin working with their father, C. D. PHILLIPS. MRS. CHARLES JR. hails from Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, and BONNIE is from Minersville, Pennsylvania.

TEACHERS

In the teaching profession for the first time are EVELYN POOLE, former editor of The Bugle, teaching English and journalism in Martinsville, Virginia; BETH BISSETTE, teaching English at West Edgecombe

High School; BETTY DORIS SANDERS, teaching science in Bunn; and LOIS RAE PACE, teaching in Clayton.
