

Programs Range From Fun To Seriousness

Variety characterizes chapel programs so far presented on Wednesdays.

Seniors opened the first program with Rev. Ben Musser of the Elm City Charge speaking to the school.

For the juniors, County Superintendent L.S. Inscoe gave his version of Brer Rabbit tales.

Idalia Oglesby's tenth grade presented a "Country Store." Characters were Marshall High, storekeeper; Bobby Dew and Edwin Finch, loafers; Luvonder Peele, old maid; Patty Sue Thompson, grumbling housewife; and Shirley Williams, giggling girl of eighteen.

A quiz program was offered by Ben Wethenington's tenth grade. If one answered the question correctly he got a prize.

Edith Farmer's ninth grade boys presented a "Truth or Consequences" program, in which Mrs. Howard Farmer, Ben Wethenington, M. W. Weaver, Fannie Lou Manning, Lamar Finch, Betty Lou Glover, Tanya Glover, Amy Lou Horton, Carroll Jones, Jerry Perry, and Wayne B. Finch took part.

Frances Wilson with the ninth grade girls gave "Borrowing Neighbors," in which Catherine Whitley played the leading part as the neighbor from whom everyone borrowed.

For Education Week, Rachel Bissette's seventh grade gave "In the Land of No Reading." Curtis Thigpen and A.J. Brantley played the leading roles.

BAILEY

THEATER

11/30-31 Sun.- Mon.
WHAT PRICE GLORY
NEWS

12/3-4 Wed.-Thur.
SKIRTS AHOY
NEWS

12/7-8 Sun.- Mon.
THE WORLD IN HIS ARMS
(Gregory Peck)
NEWS-CARTOON

12/10-11 Wed.-Thur.
JUMPING JACKS
Dean Martin-Jerry Lewis
NEWS

"MAINTAIN THE CROWD"

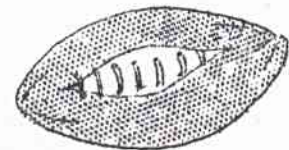

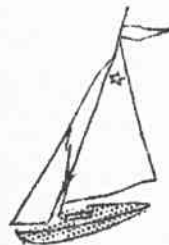

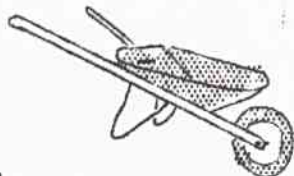

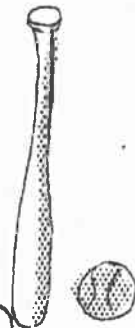

GRAB UP THE SAVINGS IN

TOYS

at

BRIDGER'S PAINT & WALLPAPER CO.

Wilson,

N.C.