

"SOCK-HOP" TONIGHT, 7:30 TO 11:00

Reporter, Ann Edwards

Future Plans Consume Meeting Time

Sock-hop plans, a program dealing with Christmas decorations, and reports were features of the Future Homemakers monthly meeting last Thursday.

Committees for the sock-hop were named by social chairman, CAROLYN FINCH.

FRANCES CARROLL president, announced the winner in selling Christmas cards.

SHELBY JEAN CARROLL received the prize of one dollar for selling twenty two boxes; JOYCE THOMPSON was second high with ten boxes. A total of 85 boxes have been sold by the entire group.

Christmas Is Theme Of Class Work

Christmas activities for the home economics classes include making decorations, gifts, and cooking Christmas goodies.

Freshmen and sophomore classes are making decorations and gifts-ear bobs, etchings, rag dolls, plaques, and woven pot holders and rugs.

Learning to make fruit cakes and other foods appropriate for Christmas day have kept the third year classes occupied.
