

Illuminating The Alumni.....

RENA BISSETTE

There could hardly have been a better resolution made this year than to remember old friends.

BEVERLY JANE TAPP holds a position in the advertising department of CHARM and MADEMOISELLE magazines in Greenwich, Connecticut. Since her job takes her all over the United States, she has been from New England to California.

For the first time in six months, she visited her parents during the Christmas holidays. She stated, "There are small towns and large towns. You find them all, but there is no place like home."

After working for Wachovia Bank for about ten years, FRANCES MANNING will, after February 1, be with the Federal Bank in Richmond, Virginia.

COLLEGE STUDENTS HOME

TOMMY GLOVER and BILLY MURRAY were home from State College for the holidays; RUTH PHILLIPS and RUTH FARMER from W.C.U.N.C. and it wasn't unusual to see A.C. students FRANK BROWN, OWEN STRICKLAND, JACKIE VICKE, IRENE GLOVER, RUDOLPH MANNING, and others.

BEN and RICHARD ETHERIDGE were home as well as R. O. PACE and the MORGANS, JANE, BOBBIE, and MILLARD JUNIOR.

HOME FROM ARMED SERVICES GENE FINCH and JACK PHODES of the Air Force and Navy were home for the Christmas holidays.

HAROLD HONEYCUTT was a home visitor also. He has been in the United States Navy for 13 and a half years.

After the holidays, PERCY LEE LILES returned home from Korea.

WORKING IN RALEIGH

PATSY and ROMAINE EDWARDS are employed with Dillon Supply Company in Raleigh, while ANN BUNN is with the Y.W.C.A. in Raleigh.

Working with the Revenue Department in Raleigh are CLARA JEAN BURNETTE and VIVIAN GRIFFIN (Mrs. BERNARD TERRY).

BARBARA HIGH is employed with the State Board of Health in Raleigh, and MAVIS STONE works in a laboratory at State College.

CORINNA WILLIAMS began work with the State Department in Raleigh in December. "I love every hour of my work," she declares.

WORKING IN WILSON

RUDOLPH EATMON is employed by Thurston Motor Lines in Wilson; LOUISE MARIE EATMON by the blouse factory in Wilson; and MRS. OTHA JENKINS (PATSY RUTH EATMON) by L. M. Phelps, Land Surveyor, in Wilson.

MARY JUNE BRANTLEY is a nurse in the Carolina General Hospital, while JAMES RAY STONE owns a business concern in Wilson.

EMPLOYED IN BAILEY

ETHLIE FARMER (MRS. FRED SMITH) is assistant to her husband in a plumbing shop here in Bailey.

DEE STONE is in the haul-
