

"The homes of Tomorrow ARE IN the hands of the youth of today"

County Rally
March 7
AT Nashville

Pres. Names Planners
For Banquet

Appointing committee chairman and assistants for the Mother-Daughter Banquet was a business feature of the Future Homemakers at their January meeting in the home economics classroom.

Decoration chairman is PATRICIA DEW with Annie Ruth Brown, Paula Ann Horner, Amy Lou Horton, Jane Burgess, Judy Lamm, and Billie Faye Perry as supporters.

Helping menu chairman ELSIE EATMON are Louise Howell, Vivian Glover, Pansy Murray, Rebecca Jo Lamm, Marlene Perry, and Maxine Brantley.

ENTERTAINMENT COMMITTEE

PATTIE SUE THOMPSON, entertainment chairman, has as her assistants Romaine Thigpen, Ann Earp, Sonja Lamm, Shirley Creech, Joyce Williams, Shelby Jean Eatmon, Betty Lou Stallings; and Barbara Nell Lamm.

Each person is required to pay 25 cents; the remainder of the expenses will be taken from the treasury.

Time for the occasion is set for 7 p. m. The date will be planned for the last of February or the first of March by advisor Frances Wilson and Social Chairman Carolyn Finch.

Student Discusses First Date

RUBY BARNES FARMER - student, mother, and housewife - spoke to the F.H.A. girls on "The First Date" at the January meeting.

According to Ruby, there are quite a few do's and don't's for the first date. A girl should at all times have a clean body, wear clean well-pressed clothes, be ready when the date arrives, introduce date to parents, have plans made as to place to go, talk about things both like, be cheerful and happy, and be the kind of girl any boy would be proud to have meet his parents.

Conversely, Ruby pointed out that no girl should overdress, try to entertain alone, park anywhere or anytime, pat and neck, kiss every boy that comes along, date married men or older men, or drink.

Sock-Hop Yields $33

Proceeds from the sock-hop, sponsored by the Future Homemakers, Friday night, December 19, in the high school gymnasium, netted $33; all profits were derived from door receipts and drink sales.

Prize winners were SIDNEY WILLIAMSON, door prize; KAY WELLS, loudest sock prize.

Decorations were carried out in the Christmas theme including a Christmas tree.

Start The
New Year
With A

"Hair Do"

From

Lillian's Beauty Shop

Phone 306-1

Bailey, N.C.