

Fashions And Pads

Hi, READERS! Let's start the new year off by looking our best at all times.

The students here in BAILEY HIGH began the year of '53 by looking like "birds in the spring" dressed up in their pretty CHRISTMAS presents, the girls wearing jewelry and sweaters, and the boys sporting new shirts, coats, and watches.

It's a pity we can't find occasions all the year round to wear the pretty CHRISTMAS corsages and bells that were so outstanding during the holiday season.

SPOTLIGHTING

The fashion spotlight for this month shines on ANN EARP and PEGGY JEAN EARP wearing their attractive corduroy blouses, and NELDA MAE HIGH and COLEEN MURRAY, who are always seen around school neat and attractive.

WINTER COLORS and FABRICS

White, an unusual winter color, is worn exceedingly well by most everyone. And aren't we glad, because it is so fresh and nice looking?

Have you noticed that wool has completely taken the place of rayon and gaberdine materials? This is an advantage for it is much warmer and doesn't get that shiny look after being worn several times.

SCHOOL COLORS

I want to congratulate the CHEER LEADERS on their well-groomed appearance at the basketball games. The school colors are most effective. I often wonder why these colors, green and gold, aren't worn to school by students more frequently.

BOYS' DEPARTMENT

The boys should be proud to own the classy corduroy shirts they have been sporting around. They are the most outstanding article of wearing apparel of the season.
