

Every Student Needed In School Every Day

We've done it for four months; we can do it two more. What! The attendance record.

If we keep our attendance up for the next two months and the teacher allotment is on the same basis this year as last year, the high school stands the chance of gaining an additional teacher.

With an additional teacher larger classes could be divided, more electives would be offered, and better instruction would result.

We students are the ones who stand to benefit from this extra teacher. Let's get her here!

Bailey Is Judged By the Students' Actions

By taking pride in our school and in class work and by supporting the school activities, we are helping others to judge Bailey school. A lusty yell at ball games show the visitors we are rooting for our school.

Ways in which we can keep Bailey tops in the public eye in and out of school are to participate in the school activities, cooperate with each other, display our best manners at all times, and to be the best student we are capable of being.

We need to watch our conduct at ball games, in the lunchroom, in the halls, class rooms, and attempt to keep our grades high if we would keep our school ranking high in the eyes of others.

Our cleanliness in mind and body, consideration of and cooperation with others in and around school reveal our school spirit, our pride, and our interest in Bailey High.

Ideas From Paper Pals..... Bruce Finch

1. We salute the Radiogram for paying tribute to their school janitor. We thought it a most interesting article, as the title in the paper implies.

2. Recognizing everyone's birthday in the paper each month is a good-recognition idea.

3. A good idea would be for our school to have more social gatherings.

4. Driving classes are given at Charles L. Coon H.S. That's not a bad idea for any school.

5. A thought for future lovers: Many a romance begun beside a splashing waterfall at a summer resort has ended beside a leaky water faucet in a kitchen sink.

What I Call A Friend

One whose grip is a little tighter

One whose smile is a little brighter,

One whose deeds are a little whiter;

That's what I call a friend.

One who'll lend as quick as borrow,

One who's the same today as tomorrow,

One who'll share your joy and sorrow;

That's what I call a friend.

One whose thoughts are a little cleaner,

One whose mind is a little keener,

One who avoids those things that are meaner;

That's what I call a friend.

One who's been fine when life seemed rotten,

One whose ideals you've not forgotten,

One who has given you more than he's gotten;

That's what I call a friend.
