

Have You?

LOIS THIGPEN

Heard:...the history class didn't eat dinner until 3 o'clock the day they attended the inauguration of Governor UNSTEAD? (When they did eat, they really ate!)

There are women who can dish it out better than they can cook it?

Ashes fly back in the face of him who sows them?

The average woman is wiser than the average man in the same sense in which a cat is wiser than a dog?

The journalism class is planning a trip to New York, March 10? ('tis true!)

Part of the secret of success in life is to eat what you like and let the food fight it out inside? (Agree?)

REBECCA ISSETTE is now MRS. RUDOLPH BOYKIN? (She was a junior.)

Noticed...the numerous uses JOYCE WILLIAMS finds for a little ole stapler?

Thinking well is wise; planning well, wiser; doing well, wisest and best of all?

A man can prove he has very good judgement by saying you have?

A woman driver is a person who drives like a man but isn't allowed to get away with it?

WAYNE LAMM'S articles in the Wilson Daily Times?

Wished...For May 25?

To move into the new building?

Seen...TANYA GLOVER'S purple weskit and skirt? (It's real pretty, on her JOYCE WILLIAMS'S beautiful new matching raincoat, hat, and umbrella?

How studying pays off with big dividends?

her teacher's way of helping her to become a more reliable person. Your way may be different and, since you and your daughter seem to have a close relationship, punishments may not be necessary at all. But at this point the thing to emphasize is not so much the differences of method as the sameness of the goal.

You can sympathize with Martha, recognizing that the punishment is hard for her, but without implying that her teacher is unfair. You will really help her more by backing up her school and her teacher. Children are disturbed and baffled if they feel torn between two authorities. If we can help them to appreciate the teacher's aims, they will soon learn that perfectly nice people may have differences of opinion about ways of achieving these aims.
