MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET
 MARCH 6
 BILCOUNTY RALLY at NASHVILLE
 MARCH 7

Rev. Edwards Speaks To Third Year Class

As a correlation to the study of marriage vows, the third year home economics class invited the REV. R. G. L. EDWARDS to give his version of the vows earlier this month.

Referring to marriage, Rev. Edwards affirmed there are several things to think about before taking the step. He recommended having a basis for marriage, some money, and common interests.

Further explaining, the pastor stated that he liked to talk to the couple before marriage.

Panel Analyzes Questions

Teen-age girls' and boys' problems were discussed by a panel at the joint meeting of the Future Homemakers and Future Farmers last Thursday in the auditorium.

PAULA ANN HORNER presented the questions to the panel members. Those composing the group were CLARA LOU STOTT, MRS. JACK BRAGG, BEN WETHINGTON, JUDY LAMM, BILL GARMON, ED TERRELL, CARROLL JONES, and HENRY BRANTLEY.

Some of the questions presented for discussion were:

How old should a girl be before she begins dating?

F.H.A. Schedules Banquet and Rally

Consuming the business period of the monthly F. H. A. meeting last week was the Mother-Daughter Banquet and the naming of the historian-reporter candidate, skit committee, and badge committee of the Nash-Franklin F. H. A. Rally set for March 7.

Committee chairmen for the Mother-Daughter Banquet were asked to meet

How can some girls get all the boys and some can't get even one?

If you are not sure a girl dates, how would you go about asking her?

How should a boy ask a girl for her first date?

How late should a girl stay out on a date?

this week and make final plans for the banquet scheduled March 6. Each student was asked to pay $1.00 to defray expenses.

JANICE EDWARDS was elected to compete against the Franklinton F. H. A. candidate for historian-reporter. Other nominees seeking election were JANE BURGESS, PATRICIA DEW, and REBECCA JO LAMM.

Each club in the two counties are responsible for a skit and badge. Serving on the skit committee are GERALDINE STRICKLAND, ANN EARP, SHELBY JEAN CARROLL, and BETTY LOU BROWN.

SHELBY JEAN WILLIAMS, JEAN WELLS, COLEEN MURRAY, and VIVIAN GLOVER compose the badge committee.
