

Parents View Work Of Students At Open House

Parents who visited at P. T.A. Open House on March 12 found on display the accomplishments of students of Bailey High School.

Generally speaking, elementary grades depicted the land and people of Holland through posters, chalk drawings, booklets, and borders of cut-outs. Illustrations were made by students of MRS. RUDOLPH GLOVER, MRS. E. H. PASCHALL, MISS ALICE HARDY, and MRS. EMMA GUNTER.

Geometric designs were displayed in the rooms of MRS. RACHEL BISSETTE, MRS. EMOGENE TURNER, and MRS. R. G. L. EDWARDS, who also had on display model airplanes, woodwork maps, and wall plaques.

The study of the ear, illustrated by pictures, was posted in MRS. PASCHALL'S room as a unit in health studies. Booklets on health were found in MRS. MARY FRANCES OWENS' and MRS. GUNTER'S room.

First and first-second-combination grades taught by MRS. FLORABELLE BYNUM and MRS. EFFIE HAGWOOD had on display pictures showing the life of birds and animals.

Class work, a science table and garden, circus and pet booklets, and Easter decorations were also exhibited.

"Let's Visit Europe" was carried out by students of MRS. JIM UNDERWOOD and MRS. SARA MAY. MRS. MAY also had a display of dolls and books on "The Age of Chivalry."
