

Have You ----- By-Lois Thigpen

Heard----the senior play is to be presented April 10?

Tanya Glover has tried to talk as the Northerners do since her trip to New York? (I might add, very unsuccessfully!)

Those seniors sing? (You will.)

30 seniors attended "Senior Day" at Atlantic Christian College in Wilson, March 13.

Worth Walker met people from Holland, Brazil?

Barbara Nell Lamm and I purchased an orchid in New York for one dollar? ('Tis true)

Billie Faye Perry's birthday is April 1? (No, fooling)

Seen----the magazine rack Bobby Ray Eatmon made? (It is beautiful!)

Betty Lou Joyner act? (She was a wow in the sophomore chapel program.)

Carroll Jones's hair cut? (I do mean cut.) (Take a look at Jimmy Harris too.)

How pretty and neat Anna-leen Medlin dresses?

Missed----the knob off the door of Jan Perry's garage? (It happened while she was backing out.)

The old baseball suits? (The new ones are gray with red and white trim.

Learned----Patricia Dew was 17 on March 17? (That was also St. Patrick's day.)

The Bugle received the highest rating possible at New York? (It was Medalist.)

Several senior girls have applied for a job in the Wachovia Bank in Raleigh? (Frances Carroll, Joyce Williams, Barbara Lamm, and Shirley Creech.)

Noticed----Another attractive bulletin board display in the library? (Miss Oglesby really has talent.)

Wondered----how old some of our teachers are? (Rayford Perry has.)

Who will receive the numerous medals at commencement this year?

If you will be exempted from exams in May?

Why Mrs. Edwards started in the lunch room?

If we are going to have to sit on the floor of the balcony again? (Think I'll bring a chair.)

Who likes grapefruit? (Wish we would have pine-apple instead.)

Why our front grounds aren't made to look as nice as the inside of our building? (It's a mystery to me too.)

BETTY LOU JONES is well known for her helping hand and friendly smile.

FRIENDLY SMILE

Have you ever stopped to think about how friendly Maxine Brantley is? She always has a smile and greeting for everyone.
