

Have You?..... Lois Thigpen

Heard.....The senior play was a smash hit! The Spring Hope senior play, Jane Eyre is tonight? Jan Perry say "On with the show"?

Jean Boykin, a senior, is now Mrs. Ronald Stone?

Joyce Denton, another senior, is now Mrs. Elias Manning?

Vivian Glover would like to buy a nickel's worth of dollars? (Her first stop was the supply room.)

Seen.....the beautiful spring outfits some of the girls are wearing? (Namely, Donnie Edwards, Billy Liles, Clarence Jones, Hilton Lamm, Charles Rhodes, Ray Fulghum, Raymond Boykin, Jimmy Joyner, Mack Joyner, Chalmers Boykin and Jimmy Joyner.)

My English book? I surely would like to have it.

The attractive invitations to the Junior-Senior Banquet sent out by the juniors?

Billie Faye Perry driving? (She can, really.)

The editorial page?(Please read it, too.)

Noticed.....Some people lose friends by always making cute remarks?

Jerry High's pretty plaid shirts?

Miss Oglesby has another clever display in the library? (She should have a medal for her ideas.)

Jimmy Harris' long hair? (Just joking.)

How attractive Joyce Williams is with her hair pulled back.

What wonderful teachers we have? (Take notice.)

Wondered.....What happened to Harvey Denton's mustache?

What is the theme of the Junior-Senior Banquet?

Who likes hominny? (Not me!)

What the seniors are going to leave to the school.

Who is taking Whom to the banquet?

Enjoyed.....A good case of "Spring Fever"? (I love it. Evidently Wayne Lamm does, too.)

Wearing cottons instead of woolens? (What a relief!)

Answered.....Your invitation to the banquet?

Program Liked By All

Ninth grade boys, under the sponsorship of Miss Edith Farmer and with the help of Miss Nancy Dickens, public school music teacher, entertained the school with a spring fashion show for their chapel program.

It was agreed by all students that this was one of the "cleverest" programs presented this year.

PROOF OF EVIDENCE

Evidence of interest held: Auditorium cleanest ever after Senior play.
