

STATE F.H.A. CONVENTION

Raleigh Memorial Auditorium

May 2

Meeting Covers Variety Of Subjects

Taking orders for Junior-Senior Banquet flowers from Brantley Florist, Spring Hope, discussing F.H.A. camp, planning to attend the State F.H.A. rally, and hearing the REV. FRANK ZEDICK speak on "Courtship and Marriage" consumed the last F.H.A. meeting.

All profits made from taking orders for corsages for the Junior-Senior Banquet will be added to the F.H.A. treasury.

"Camp plans are to be revealed later," says Miss Frances Wilson, adviser.

PASTOR

REV. ZEDICK, speaker, is pastor of the Bailey and Middlesex Baptist churches and attends Wake Forest College.

Talking on "Courtship and Marriage," the pastor read the marriage vows and gave advice to the girls about selecting their husbands.

Club Sends Delegates

Eighteen voluntary delegates from the Bailey F. H. A. chapter will attend the state F. H. A. convention, May 2, at Raleigh Memorial Auditorium, points out F. H. A. adviser, Frances Wilson.

Girls Hike To Pond

Members of the third year home economics class ushered in spring by trekking to Farmer's Pond to have a wiener roast.

3:15 p.m. saw the girls, dressed in dungarees, leaving school; 4:15 p.m. saw them arriving at the pond.

While the fire was being started, slaw and gravy was being prepared, and wieners were soon roasting over the blaze.

The feast being over, some girls walked around the pond while others chatted by the fire. At 5:30 the trip home began.

Ice Cream Recipe

Chill thoroughly one tall can evaporated milk in freezing tray.

Pour in a cold bowl and beat with electric mixer or a good hand rotary beater until it is thick and holds its shape.

Add few grains of salt

Juice of one big lemon

$\frac{1}{2}$ t. vanilla

$\frac{3}{4}$ c. sugar

Fold in a box of frozen strawberries, or $\frac{1}{2}$ can crushed pineapple, or $\frac{1}{3}$ lb. crushed pepper-mint candy.

Freeze on High. Do Not Stir.

For Those BANQUET

CURLS and WAVES

Get Your
Appointment Today

AT

Lillian's Beauty Shop

Bailey,

N. C.