

What Will A Band Mean To The School

Whether Bailey High will have a band is yet not definite. The chances now look rather discouraging.

Have the students and parents weighed the benefits of a band to them and the school? It is true that the instruments are rather expensive, but not too much so when the profits derived there from are considered.

This paper would like to list a few advantages gained by having a band, in hopes that it is not yet too late to accept the offered opportunity of organizing a band:

1. Stimulates community interest in the school.
2. Stimulates attendance at all school activities.
3. Gives publicity to the school.
4. Increases pride in and loyalty to the school.
5. Develops appreciation for music.
6. Promotes group activity, cooperation, poise, and confidence of the individual.
7. Brings out talents that might not be discovered.
8. Fills a gap that might otherwise go undirected.

Psychologists say that there are in every individual certain innate desires that must be filled or else the result is frustrated individuals. Music is one of these. A school band can help to satisfy this desire.

Thanks-----

To Mrs. Edwards and her boys for satisfying the popcorn line each day.

To Sonja Manning for her happy greeting to everyone going to the supply room early in the morning.

To the librarians who help out during their study halls.

To Vivian Glover and

Wayne ~~Dann~~ for assisting with the mimeoscope work for this issue of the Bugle.

To the girls who give up their time and study halls to help out in the lunch room.

To the grades for helping keep the grounds clean.

To Miss Oglesby and Mrs. Howton for helping Leonard Glover with his studies while he is sick.

To the county board for tiling the new lunch room floor.

To Ann Earp for assisting with the mimeograph work for this issue of the Bugle.

To everyone who subscribes to the Bugle.

To the advertisers for their interest in the Bugle.

Feb. '41 Shame, Student

Every high school student should have enough pride in himself to want to keep out of the detention hall. A person who has to be sent to the detention hall is recognized as one who cannot behave himself in school. If the students begin to show that they can conduct themselves mannerly and get to class on time, there is a possibility of closing the detention hall. We can do it!

Oct. 1940-41 DID YOU KNOW?

That this paper is composed and printed by your children?

That in 1940-41 it cost $5 an issue?

That we have no funds furnished by the state or county to pay the cost?

Dec. 1941--DUMBNESS HAS ITS REWARD--HEAL ALL!-A Locker

If I could but talk, oh, what stories I could tell--supposed secrets and planned schemes--I know them all.

More than that, I am aware of the characteristics of almost every boy and girl in high school; and let me tell you if there's any truth in the old saying "Neatness and patience pays" my advice is less gossiping and grumbling and more neatness and patience.

Even though I'm green (in color), I'm not ignorant.
