

Thanksgiving, A Holiday - But More

This afternoon the Thanksgiving holidays begin. Has anyone really thought about what Thanksgiving signifies? For the real meaning of the word divide it into its two root words, thanks and giving.

Sometime during the holidays may everyone give thanks through some manner of expression for the joys and blessings coming his way this year.

Fund Raising Envolves More Than Money

A new piano, curtains for the auditorium windows, cash in the junior and senior classes to meet the classes' obligations are a few of the visible results of fund-raising efforts of the school to date.

The school is richer by several hundred dollars. But that isn't the important factor: It is richer for the cooperative efforts of students and faculty and parents called forth to raise this money; for the cooperative spirit of the entire community; for the training received by the students in cooperative undertakings; and for the benefits the school will continue to receive from purchases made possible and activities yet to be engaged in.

Seen in this light, the complaint sometimes heard--"It takes so much money for the school."---will be ignored.

POLICY OF

BEST EFFORTS

UNBIASED TRUTH

GOOD NEWS COVERAGE

LUCID REPORTING

ENLIGHTENING READING

BAILEY BUGLE

Published monthly

10¢ per copy

EDITOR: - - - PEGGY LILES

STAFF: Marlene Eatmon,

Carolyn Finch, Stella Jones

Shelby Eatmon, Betty Lou

Brown, Christine Fowler

TYPIST: Ann Medlin, Amy

Lou Horton

ADVISERS: Farmer-Lassiter

They'll Wear'em!

MRS. LASSITER----- Pretty matching skirts and blouses.

MISS OGLESBY-----Striking color harmony.

MR. EDWARDS AND MR. DEAN- Fresh white shirts.

MISS WILSON--Color combination.

MRS. FARMER--Clean, crisp dresses and suits.

MR. WESTALL--Sport jacket.

MISS FARMER-----Attractive sweaters.

MR. WEAVER---Light-colored suits.

MR. WELLS--Beautiful ties.

MR. BYRD-----Immaculate clothes.

Echoes Of The Past

(Gleaned from past Bugles)

By Stella Jones

September 26, 1947-Wisdom Wise

"There is always one word to say exactly what you want. Dig for it."

Mrs. Howard Farmer
Teacher

"Go ahead and be obstinate. See what it gets you."

Jacqueline Collie
Senior

November 22, 1950 Recipe For Well-rounded Student

This recipe will make a well-rounded student during one period. And if followed through each period, he will become respected by students and teachers alike.

15 minutes--Courtesy

12 minutes-- Understanding

20 minutes--Honesty

10 minutes--Character

3 minutes--Wit

Mix courtesy and honesty until no lumps appear. Then pour in understanding and character until it becomes thick. Add wit and mix thoroughly with all classrooms and try it for one week. It is guaranteed to satisfy your hunger for popularity. J. M. McLaughlin. (Taken from the Rumbler, the Middlesex High School paper. Editor)

March 13, 1946- A Tongue Twister

A fly and a flea flew up a flue,

Said the fly to the flea,
Oh, what shall we do?

Lets' fly said the flea,

Let's flea said the fly-

So they flew through a

Pflow in a flue.

R. Thigpen