

Seniors At Work On Final Edition

Already in process is the Special Edition of the senior section for the May issue of the Bugle. Because of numerous activities later on in the year, the seniors and their sponsor say they should have this task behind them.

This section, as in former years, will include individual pictures of the class, the officers, the superlatives, highlights of the high school years, and various snapshots.

Plans For '54 Revealed

Leading the list for desired goals and improvements for Bailey in the '54 school year are four items that, if gained, will add beauty, improve instruction, and meet state requirements, discloses Principal M. W. Weaver.

Plans are still in the making for the improvement of the school grounds.

A cart for the moving of the filmstrip projector is on the proposed list.

Future plans call for the removal of the present laboratory to the former home economics room and the turning of the old laboratory into a library large enough to accommodate any elementary group at one time.

High School Library Adds 67 Books

Sixty-seven new library books have been added to the high school library.

Approximately one-third of the books desired were not available; but appropriate substitutions were made.

According to Miss Oglesby,

Short Stories were the most needed books, Miss Oglesby says. Nineteen new ones were added.

Four new reference books--AMERICAN NATURAL HISTORY, NEW ENCYCLOPEDIA OF MUSIC, AMERICAN AUTHOR-1600-1900, and WEBSTER'S BIOGRAPHICAL DICTIONARY--were added because they are essential books for an accredited library.

THE NEW REVISED VERSION OF THE NEW TESTAMENT was also added.

Ballteams will find HOW TO PLAY WINNING BASEBALL and BASKETBALL FOR GIRLS helpful.

INDIVIDUAL INTEREST

Of particular interest to those who like to read about certain persons will be YANKEE FROM OLYMPUS, PAUL REVERE AND HIS MINUTE MEN, COLERIDGE, A POET OF WILD ENCHANTMENT, THE GREENWOOD TREE, and NEHRU OF INDIA.

Two new books about real American natives are INDIAN TALES and INDIANS OF AMERICA.

Boys that like to tinker with automobiles should find ALL ABOUT YOUR CAR a help.

Girls who like to save money and at the same time have new clothes could profit from reading BETTER CLOTHES FOR YOUR MONEY.

COMEDY COMING

"Aunt Samantha Rules the Roost", a three-act comedy, will be presented by the juniors around the middle of March.

The cast has been selected and practices will start sometime in the near future.

a number of things have to be done to the books before they are ready to be put in the library. Listed here are some of these requirements:

1. Listed in accession book.
2. Stamped BRS.
3. Shellacked for protective purposes.
4. Posted and date due slips pasted in.
5. Have catalogue cards made for each book.
6. Checking-out cards made.