acters, even though in many cases they are not real. Young people can often read for pleasure and keep themselves occupied and thus stay out of mischief.

Reasons for reading are numberless. Let us use books well. Use them to learn to live a useful life in a democracy. E. A. Cameron, in the High School Journal says: "The proper operation of a democracy requires that its members function as rational beings, capable of making reasoned decisions, sensitive to opportunities and obligations, able to distinguish between good and evil, significance and triviality, truth and falsehood! Books properly assimilated can help each of us to become a better citizen.

Semester Honor Roll

Students making semester honor roll are Peggy Liles, senior; Mary Ella Glover and Audrey Joyner, freshmen; Elsie Rae Eatmon, sophomore. Except for having a below-A conduct grade, Jimmy Harris, Rayford Perry, seniors; and Billie Faye Perry, junior; made academic grades entitling them to be on the honor roll.

Louise Wells, freshmen, made academic grades but illness prevented perfect attendance.
