

READ
HISTORY OF TURKEY
PAGE 2-A

COUNTY TOURNAMENT
FEB. 17-26
SUPPORT TEAMS!

VOLUME 14 NUMBER 6

BAILEY, NORTH CAROLINA

FEBRUARY, 1954

FHA Rally Coming To Bailey, March 6

Saturday two weeks, the Bailey Home Economics Department will be hostess to the Nash-Franklin Rally of the Future Homemakers of America. Approximately 300 FHA members from these two counties are expected to attend the meeting.

PROGRAM

Beginning at 10 a.m. and continuing until 3 p.m., the program calls for guest speaker, varied entertainment, and an election of officers.

Rose Manning of Middlesex, President of this Bi-County Future Homemakers of America, will be the presiding officer.

Juniors To Stage Class Play In March

"Aunt Samantha Rules the Roost", a three-act comedy, is coming to the school auditorium March 26, as a junior class presentation.

The plot is centered around a little servant girl that is in love with the grocery boy, but on his part the feeling is not reciprocal. To win him, the young girl buys love powders.

The tables are turned when Aunt Samantha, her
(See JUNIOR PLAY page 2)

Turkish President Visits School On U.S. Tour

BAILEY SMALLEST TOWN INCLUDED IN ITINERARY

President Celal Bayar and Mrs. Bayar of Turkey and their party, composed of prominent officials of Turkey and the US Governments, members of the press and information services of both countries, visit Bailey school this morning en route to Wilson and Rocky Mount.

Because of its rural background and its various departmental work, Bailey

(See PRESIDENT Page 2-A)

Remodeling Of Classrooms Under Way

Building plans for a new elementary library, science laboratory, and girls' rest room are already in process. The work is under the supervision of Julian Finch, county maintenance supervisor.

Changing the former science laboratory into a class-size elementary library is one phase of this program that will meet the State's requirement for an elementary library room.

Plans for dividing the old home economics department into a girls' rest room and a new science laboratory are taking shape.

Educational Fair Theme Of Open House

Open House, presented as an Educational Fair with its midways, attractions, and exhibits, will come at its regular annual date, the March PTA meeting.

ATTRACTIONS

To carry out the theme of an Educational Fair those in charge will have the halls representing "mythical" midways; the classrooms, attractions; and the work of students, the exhibits. Each room or "exhibition hall" will have a guest book to be signed by the visitors.

The central "Grandstand Feature Attraction" will be the program staged in the auditorium by the Mighty Midgets and Tiny Toddlers of the two first grades.

REFRESHMENTS

After the program and the visiting of the midway is over, the parents and visitors will be invited to go to the lunchroom for refreshments.

Mrs. R. G. L. Edwards is general chairman of Open House. Mrs. Florabelle Bynum, Mrs. Jerry Hagwood, and Mrs. Helen Murray are head of the program committee, and Miss Frances Wilson heads the hospitality committee.