

School Encourages Magazine Reading

To increase the students' interests in reading good literature, the school is spending $65 this year for magazines, states Principal M. W. Weaver.

In the junior class literature text there is a chapter on "The Magazine and Newspaper Article." In this chapter, LIFE, the SAT* URDAY EVENING POST, NEWSWEEK, and the AMERICAN MAGAZINE are mentioned as magazines of "exceedingly high quality."

These four magazines are included on the list in the high school library along with numerous other magazines.

CHILD LIFE, NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC, and STORY PARADE are among the magazines in the elementary grades.

STAFF PROBLEMS

A contribution for this column.

Was our assignment for tonight;

I tried and tried so many times

But simply could not write.

I racked my weak and weary brains;

I've taken lots of time and pains;

I've tried a poem, a quip, a pun,

But still my battle is unwon--

A lyric, limerick, joke, and rhyme.

I quit! I'll try again sometime.

Juniors Learn New Words

Those juniors' brains have really been "clicking" lately because they have added approximately 150 new words to their vocabulary, according to Mrs. Howard Farmer, English teacher.

Ten sentences using the words studied were made by the students each day. These sentences served also as a means of stressing punctuation, spelling, and variation of sentence structure. Occasionally a little checkup was given "just to make sure" the class was learning the meanings of the words as well as the word itself.
