

The Successful
Farmer Of Tomorrow

Is Today's
Future Farmer

SHOP PEEPING

Cedar Chests are being made by Dwight Glover, Marshall High, Wayne B. Finch, James Paul Stott, and Bobby Ray Eatmon.

Bobby Dew, Ted Morris, and Thomas McKeel are making tables.

Hat racks seem to be the favorites right now for Billy Glover and John Robert Lamm.

Hoyt Brown and Kurt Stone have started bookcases.

Newton Glover plans to sit on the lawn under the shade tree this summer because he is now making a set of lawn chairs.

Douglas Brown prefers a poplar chest to a cedar one.

Evidently Jimmy Bennett and Julian and Danny Glover have a boat ride or a fishing trip in mind since they are now building a boat for the Pepsi-Cola man who brings their drinks down to shop..

Billy Liles and Jimmy Bennett are working on coffee tables.

Corney Boykin just goes down to shop to help his friends work, so that he will be present when Pepsi time rolls around.

April 14--2 p.m.--C. S. Bunn--Hog and Dairy Cattle Judging Contest.

Chapter Sponsors Father-Son Banquet

At the annual Father and Son Banquet in the school cafeteria approximately 140 members, fathers, and guests were present for the event.

The program was opened by the officers and the invocation was given by the Rev. Frank Zedick. Following the invocation the tenth grade Home Ec. girls served a supper of barbecue, baked ham, brunswick stew, slaw, bread, coffee, and soft drinks.

Wayne B. Finch, president recognized the guests while Douglas Brown welcomed them. Willis Finch gave the response to the welcome. Each member introduced his father or guest to the group.

For entertainment Danny Glover showed two films.

The members of the chapter gave the closing ceremonies to end another yearly banquet.

CLASS STAGES DISPLAY

During National FFA week, February 22-27, the ninth B section made a window display in Brooks Privette's store showing some of their shop projects.

If So See
Your Nearest
Dealer For All
Your Building
Needs

J. W. STONE LUMBER CO.

BAILEY, NORTH CAROLINA

