

Chapel Programs Differ

"What real work Mrs. Murray and the teachers have been putting forth on the programs!" is an oft-repeated remark heard about the chapel programs presented for the past months.

Mrs. Olivia Barnes' second and third graders acted out "The Country Mouse and the City Mouse." Then Mrs. Altermise Glover's second graders gave "The Calender House." Each month was represented by a different child.

"We're Playing Mama and Papa" and "A Doll Show" was given by Mrs. Florabelle Eynum's first graders. Mrs. Effie Hagwood's first and second graders' play was "A Party bible for the course.

Principally, the course is designed to teach students to drive safely and correctly and to point out to them their shortcomings.

Any student who is 16 or over or who will be 16 before the year is out is eligible to take the course, disposes Edwards.

Saving of human life, preventing injury, and promoting economic savings are the desired results. In Nash County alone last year there was an average loss of $12,000,000 in economic value.
