Two grammar grade rooms had a tie of 95%. They were Miss Clee Eatman's third grade and Mrs. Underwood's sixth grade.

In high school for the seventh month, Mrs. Laurine Lassiter's ninth grade led with 96%.

Tied for second place with 95% average were Miss Edith Farmer's 10th grade, Miss Idalia Oglesby's 11th grade, and Mrs. Howard Farmer's 12th grade.

Poem

By Jimmy Finn
Grade Three, Age 9

You are my little bird
You are blue.
I say little bird
I love you.

You are my little squirrel
You are black.
I saw you climbing
Up the hay stack.

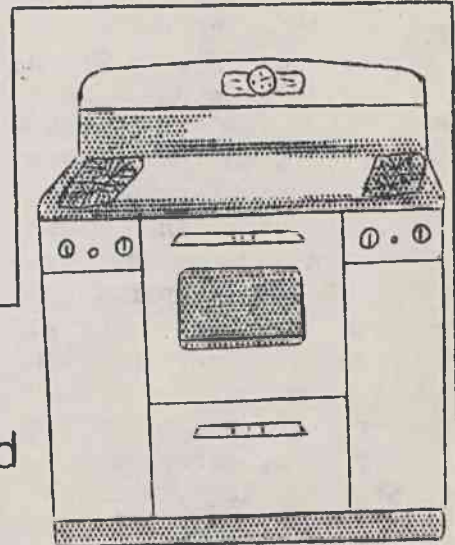

I have a mule
She is slow.
She likes me
For all I know.

Junior Play Pays Off; Treasury Adds $100

Junior play nets class "at least" $100 states the sponsor, Miss Idalia Oglesby. Door receipts totaled $91.80; advertising brought in $61.00

Miss Oglesby in commenting on the play declared that "everyone did his part well". She feels "the juniors have profited from the experience, and it has helped them to prepare for their play next year." It is her belief that "everyone enjoyed the play."
