

Thanks ----- M. EATMON

To Vivian Glover for helping cut the stencils for the juniors' play booklet.

To the teachers for helping the journalism students make up their back work after they came back from New York.

To all the teachers and students for the attractive rooms on display at Open House.

To Louise Davis for cutting stencils for the junior play book.

To the students who always remember their courtesy when the school has visitors.

To everybody who helped to make Open House the success it was.

To Miss Oglesby for the bulletin board display in the library.

To the students who were so co-operative while Mrs. Farmer and Mrs. Lassiter were away.

To Mrs. Helen Murray for training those juniors who sang at the junior play.

To everyone that helped make the junior play a success.

To all persons supplying staff with news.

To Mrs. Lassiter for having new bathroom cleaned and waxed.

School Meets Demand By Providing Library

In order for Bailey to get on the accredited list of those schools having elementary libraries, Nash County is now turning an old grammar grade classroom at Bailey into an elementary library large enough to accommodate any individual class.

Although elementary library books will be transferred to the new library, teachers will still be allowed to take books out for a classroom library.

EQUIPMENT

Built into the new library is a work table, magazine rack, shelves around three-fourths of the walls, and a bulletin board. A lavatory will be installed.

This library is situated on the south side of the building, so that there will be plenty of light supplied at all times.

The colorful setting, accessible work tables,
