Nash NCEA Names Bailey Principal For Double Awards

Principal M. W. Weaver, retiring president of the Nash County unit of the NCEA, just before handing over the gavel to his successor, was presented a life-time membership in the National Education Association and a silver pitcher at the annual Association Banquet in the Bailey cafeteria last Thursday evening.

Weaver received the membership award for his professional work in the organization this year.

The second award came in

C. Fowler, Valedictorian; J. Harris, Salutatorian

Averaging of the scholastic grades for each member of the senior class for the four high school years reveals that Christine Fowler becomes valedictorian and Jimmy Harris, salutatorian.

Rayford Perry's record was a close second.

Peggy Liles' and Tanya Glover's records were slightly below Rayford's.

PTA Names Haskins Pres. For Coming Yr.

For the first time in a number of years a man heads the slate of PTA officers for 1954-'55. John D. Haskins, nominated by the nominating committee, became president without any opposition.

Assisting him during these months of work and planning will be Mrs. Pearlle Horton, serving as vice-president; Mrs. R. G. L. Edwards, as secretary; and Mrs. M. B. Glover, as treasurer.

The officers will appoint the Executive Committee for the coming year. During the summer the officers, Principal Weaver, and the Executive Committee will meet to plan work and name committees for the next school year.

CLASS NIGHT TO OPEN EXERCISES, MAY 14

Speakers for Commencement will be the Reverend Fred A. Rivenbark, Pastor of Sherron Acres Church, Durham, North Carolina, delivering the Baccalaureate Sermon, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, May 16; and Dr. James M. Maudy, Dean at Atlantic Christian College, Wilson, North Carolina, giving the commencement address, Tuesday evening, May 18, at 8 o'clock is the report coming from the Principal's office.

PLAY OPENS COMMENCEMENT

Commencement will open Friday evening with the presentation of "The Future Train," the senior class night play.

Following the awarding of diplomas Tuesday evening, May 18, Principal Weaver will present medals and other prizes to those students voted worthy of the honors.

Seniors Decide On Gift

What the senior class should leave the school was decided this week when the group voted to purchase a portable loud Speaker, costing around $200.

It is hoped the Speaker will arrive by class night.
