

Illuminating The Alumni----- S. Eatmon

Marriages, new babies, and "odds and ends" take the lead in the alumni news this month.

Recently married was Lester Bissette to Catherine McKeel. They are making their home here in Bailey while both remain in school.

Dixie Rae Glover, graduate of '51, became the bride of Percy Price, Easter Sunday.

Also marrying at Easter was Mary Helen Johnson to Wanza Hales.

Married to Robert Sulton of Goldsboro is Barbara Farmer. She was married April 3.

Tommy Perry's bride of May 30 will be Audrey Lamm of Rock Ridge.

NEW ADDITIONS

Mr. and Mrs. Marks Underwood have another boy, Stephen Alexander (Stevie).

Mr. and Mrs. James Bunn (Mary Lou Lamm) are proud parents also.

Iva Mae Nixon, Mrs. Leroy Jones, has a new baby, Randy Lee.

Just recently, Mrs. Herbert Hockett, Annie Margaret Hopkins, became the mother of a "precious little child."

Mr. and Mrs. Sammy Glover have a new baby boy.

OTHERS

Working for Ligget and Myers Tobacco Company are Edgar J. Farmer and Willis Finch.

Mrs. Warren Crumpler, the former Romaine Eatmon, has just returned from Oklahoma, where she has been with her husband for the past several months.

Although he isn't in service, Sergeant Rudolph Eatmon is now devoting his entire time to the National Guard in Wilson, North Carolina.

Phyllis Finch Strickland left recently to join her husband who is located in Germany.

Since graduation Janice Earp has been living at home working on the farm.

Serving his country is Andrew Lamm. He is with the Army.

A Finch's basketball team has been organized in Raleigh by Howard Finch. The team plays for pastime. On this team are Romaine Perry Barnes, Melba J. Stott Smith, and the former Joyce Wiggs.

As this is the last issue of the Bugle for this year, I will bid each goodbye and say I have enjoyed writing this column for you.

Library Furniture Here

All the furniture has been installed in the new library; books are being mended in readiness for use next September.

E. EATMON HEADS MARSHALS

Chief marshal for commencement is Elsie Rae Eatmon, sophomore, with an average of 96.6.

Other marshals are Billie Faye Perry and Edwin Finch, juniors; Katherine Whitley, sophomore; and Louise Wells and Peggy Braswell, freshmen.
