

Entire Staff Present At State Press Asso.

To better prepare themselves for the coming year's work in journalism, staff members of this paper attended in full with their advisers, Mrs. Howard Farmer and Mrs. Laurine Lassiter, the North Carolina Scholastic Press Institute at Chapel Hill, Saturday, October 2.

The distinguished guest at this Institute was Dean Laurence Champbell from Florida State University. He has served as director of High School Press Associations in Illinois, Oregon, and Florida. He took part in the panel discussion "Put Life In Your News."

The staff attended six panel discussions during the day: "Put Ideas in

Only One Replacement In Faculty

Bailey's only new teacher for the year, Mrs. Ruby B. Boykin, comes from the neighboring town of Kenly and replaces in the fourth and fifth grade Miss Naomi Bobbit, who taught here last year.

Mrs. Boykin taught at Chapel School in Johnston County last year.

Her favorite past time is watching T. V. and reading. She commutes from Kenly.

Your Editorial," "Put Pep in Your Sports," "Put Brains in Your Features," "Put Variety in Your Make-up," "Put Life in Your News," and "Put Personality in Your Ads.

OPEN

Seven Days
A Week
Under New Management

Get Your
Fine Foods
Here

BAILEY CAFE

(The Jaybird Bissettes)

Bailey

N. C.

Never Any "Coil-Feel"

In Mattress And

Upholstered Furniture

Reinforced With

RO-MAR

Wire Insulators

COME IN FOR "3-WAY" COMFORT TEST

1. CHECK FOR "SAGGY" SPOTS
2. CHECK FOR UNEVEN EDGES
3. CHECK FOR "COIL-FEEL"

CHRISTIAN FURNITURE CO.