

Senior Play

November 5

BAILEY BUGLE

Bailey vs Saratoga

There-November 2

VOLUME 2

BAILEY, NORTH CAROLINA

OCTOBER, 1954

Halloween Activities Open 7:30 Tonight; Prices 10, 20 Cents

Citizens Petition City For Music Funds

Mrs. Glenn Griffin is heading a group of citizens circulating a petition throughout Nash County to be presented to the County Commissioners requesting funds for the continuation of the public school music program in Nash County.

The signed statement reads: "We the undersigned, do hereby request the commissioners of Nash County to earmark each year a sufficient amount of ABC store profit to finance a countywide public school music program."

Audience To Share Mystery With Senior Actors

"Who Killed Aunt Caroline?", the senior play, will give the audience a taste of mystery as they witness the performance the evening of November 5 for the price of 25 and 35 cents.

According to the director, Miss Idalia Oglesby, Aunt Caroline is one of the meanest characters ever created, and when she dies oh, so strangely, at the
(See MYSTERY page 17)

HALLOWEEN KING AND QUEEN, MISS AMERICA CONTESTS FIRST;
CARNIVAL TO FOLLOW IN GYMNASIUM

Contests Will Be Center Of Attraction

Grammar grade contestants will compete tonight for the honor of being crowned King and Queen of Halloween. High school beauty queens will compete for the Miss America title.

The couple in the grammar grades with the most votes will be crowned King and Queen of Halloween. From the first grade through the eighth the students competing in this contest are Catherine Williams and Robby Meacomes, Sandra Brown and Graham Farmer, Betsy May and Phill Phill-
(See CONTESTS page 17)

H.S. Misses Goal

Through-out the school, last month's daily attendance was 516.

In the elementary grades there was an average of 323 present each day; in high school, an average of 193 present.

The high school missed by seven its 200 average daily attendance needed the first seven months to gain an additional teacher.

Tonight the PTA finance committee is offering "all an opportunity to enjoy a night of fun in the spirit of Halloween."

At 7:30 the program in the auditorium will open. This program will be divided into two sections.

First will come the crowning of the Halloween Queen and King of the grammar grades. This will be followed by The Miss America Contest of high school beauty queens. The entertainment phase of both divisions will be directed by Mrs. Helen Murray. Between times there will be cake walks.

ADMISSION

Admission to the auditorium will be ten cents through the eighth grade and twenty cents for everyone else.

The carnival portion will be staged in the gymnasium with the usual booths and stands. For variety the Tunnel of Love and the Novelty Shop have been added.

The committee in charge of the carnival is composed of all the teachers with Mrs. M. W. Weaver acting as chairman.

The funds from tonight's "fun and spooks" will be used to beautify the school grounds.