HI FANS!

The sophomore and junior boys opened the class tournaments this month with a victory of 50-11 for the juniors.

It is generally agreed that Charles Rhodes, because of his playing and teamwork, was the best player for the juniors.

The senior girls won over the sophomore girls 66 to 30. Annette Davis played well for the sophomores and Paula Horner and Judy Lamm for the seniors.

The senior boys' victory over the freshmen boys, 69-31, came as no surprise, but the freshmen did "surprisingly well," especially Jimmy Dew and Jeff Denton. For the seniors, Newton Glover was the best player. Thomas McKeel played and jumped well.

The junior girls walloped the freshmen girls 62-25. Roselyn Turnage proved to be a good guard for the freshmen. Joan Brannon and Nelda Mae High were outstanding among the juniors.

Outstanding players mentioned above were named by the coach.

Juniors, Seniors Win In Class Tournaments

Capping the class tournaments this year were the senior girls and the junior boys with a victory of 62-41 and 38-36 respectively over the runner ups, junior girls and senior boys.

The senior girls walloped the junior girls in their 62-41 victory.

"The guards, Shirley Williams, Paula Horner, and Sue Bunn, played well," expressed coach W. H. Westall.

Janice Edwards was high-scorer with a total of 23 points. Billie Faye Perry racked up 21 points, Judy Lamm, 12 points, and Carolyn Finch, 6.

Joan Brannon, for the juniors, made 36 points out of the total of 41.

BOYS' GAME

The junior boys defeated the senior boys 38-36 in a close game.

Coach Westall thinks that the difference was possibly the defense of the junior boys. They played a 4 man zone, 2 men playing out and 2 under the basket, with one man to guard Newton Glover, recognized as the seniors' "best player" of the evening. In spite of the close guarding, Newton made 18 points out of the total of 36.
