

Students, 'Tis Time To Check Our Habits

According to the report cards last week 37 per cent of the high school failed at least one subject. Besides the failures there were many very poor grades.

There are some definite things we students can do to improve our work.

Here at school we can make use of every moment, especially study halls; pay attention on class; learn to follow instructions; to apply what we learn.

At home we can avoid some of our social activities on week nights, limit ourselves to radio and television programs, and have definite study hours.

If we follow these instructions, our grades will improve. The grades we make and the habits we form here will determine our future. It can be brighter!

---

Out Of The Past

(Excerpts from past issues of BUGLE)

May 6, 1940

TRIP TO WASHINGTON

On May 6 a number of the seniors and other interested people are planning to take a trip to Washington, D. C.

May, 1940

BETA CLUB

Beta club members of Bailey High School have shown outstanding qualities of leadership in mind and personality in the past five months, and these achievements are constantly bringing other students to acknowledge the benefits of the club to the school.

May, 1940

UNITED STATES HISTORY
CLASS MAKES MODELS

To complete this month's work, the United States History Class of Bailey High School is making miniature models representing past history.

Some of the models made are a Massachusetts Mansion built in 1718; the Baptist meeting House, Providence, Rhode Island, in 1789; "Old Ironsides;" General Lee on his horse, "Traveler"; dolls dressed as colonial women; and others.

April, 1941

ATHLETES RECEIVE LETTERS

Bailey's first letters will be given to the following basketball players for having met necessary requirements: Estella Eatmon, Marie Morgan, Maebelle Bisette, Isabelle Vick, Josephine Lamm, Relae Mae Finch, Mary E. Jones. Rachel Jones, Irene Bissette, Jack Farmer, Thad Jernigan, James Brown, Lewis Bissette, Kenneth Farmer, Thomas Finch, Charles Medlin, and Albert Lamm.

Hazel Grows Up - The Wrong Way

HAZEL, a carefree, restless young girl, decided to step out in high style. Yes, she went to one of those big glamorous parties--her first. But then, something went wrong and her temper got the best of her. She flirted her skirt and stampeded out, toppling over everything in her path. Mad as a wet hen, she strutted North Nothing could cool the 'lady', not even an ocean of water; no forest could slow her pace or temper her spirit; many a building tried to match her strength but failed in disaster. Tearing a path of destruction behind, she was on her way to take a tour of the globe.

Finally, away, away up north (somewhere in North ern most Canada) she met some one--Mr. Cold Air himself. The two fell in love and Hazel persuaded Mr. Air to travel with her. They visited England, Holland, Belgium, France, and all of Europe. Yes, they brought a cold wave to busy Lohdon and gay Paris, and right now they may be honey-mooning in sunny Rome.

BAILEY BUGLE
Volume 15, Number 2
Bailey, N. C.
October, 1954
Published monthly by Journalism Class
Commercial Department
10¢ per copy

Co-Editors--Bobby R. Eatmon
Lane Farmer