

THE SUCCESSFUL FARMER

OF

TOMORROW

IS THE FUTURE FARMER

OF

TODAY

Boys Begin Work On Cedar Chests

Materials for making cedar chests have arrived and 19 boys have begun work on the chests.

These boys are Raymond Boykin, Mac Joyner, J.A. Griffin, L. B. Adams Wesley Medlin, Douglas Brown, Bobby R. Eatmon, Ray Peele, Douglas Honeycutt, Tommy Gay, Carrol Bottoms, Mack Eatmon, Dale Wells, Robert Whitley, Charles R. Perry, J. P. Lamm, A. W. Pitts, Harold Davis, and Marshall High. Marshall is also working on a cedar wardrobe.

Edwin Finch has as his project a coffee table; Jimmy Bennett, a kitchen cabinet.

Boys Attend St. Fair

Boss Wells and the FFA boys were present at the State Fair the second day of the Fair week.

As usual almost every boy in high school went. The FFA boys visited the livestock exhibits. Some of them attended the livestock contests, while others went to see the school exhibits, but most of them were in the midway all day.

Chapter Welcomes New Members

Twenty-five freshman became active members of the Bailey Chapter of FFA this month when they were initiated and given their Green-hand pens and cards.

A hot dog supper followed the meeting at the agricultural building.

The boys initiated were Mitchell Beard, J. R. Bissette, Glover Bray, Jimmy Dew, James Earp, Bobby Howell, Jimmy Joyner.

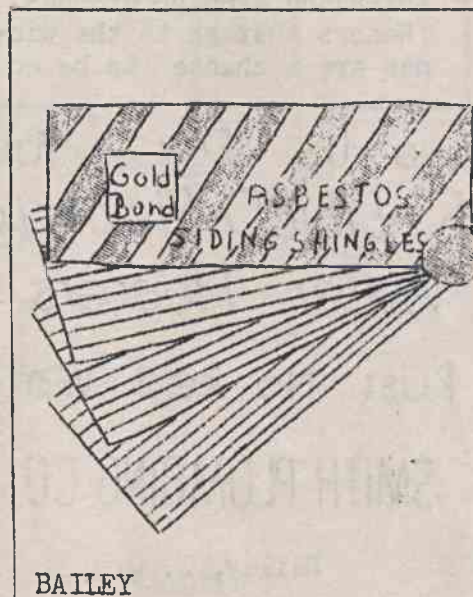

Ervin Lucas, Thomas Lucas, Charles Patterson, Alan Phillips, Ervin Vaughn, Larry Vick, William Watson, Elton Bass.

A. J. Brantley, Tony Bunn, J. W. Carroll, Jeff Denton, Jimmy Glover, Randal Hinton, Rex Lewis, Adrian Mitchell, William Page, Gene Pearson.

Tommy Stallings, Curtis Thigpen, Verlon Whitley, Lewis Williams, and William Issette. William a tenth grader was not initiated last year.

Ervin Vaughn, Glover Bray, Bobby Howell, Thomas Murray, and William Page did not receive their pens and cards because they haven't recited the FFA creed. They will become active members when requirements are met.

BAILEY

BEAUTY
Your Home
Once And For All

With Gold Bond

Fireproof

Chroma-Tex Shingles

J.W. STONE

LUMBER

CO.

NORTH CAROLINA