

Visiting With The Elementary Grades -S. Manning

Thanksgiving and animals are adding "that something inspirational" that lead elementary grades to enjoy their work.

To visit a miniature farm with farm buildings, animals, tractors, cars, and trucks, one need go no further than Mrs. Altermise Glover's second grade. The class also has colored pictures of farm life and animals.

PETS

Mrs. Rachel Paschall's fourth grade has been studying pets for their unit of study. They visited Bob Johnson and saw his pony "Cocoa." June Bennett was chosen to replace Vanice Bisette for secretary in their club, "Bailey Jacks."

THANKSGIVING

If you would like to see some turkey drawings, go to Mrs. Ruby Boykin's fourth and fifth grade. The students are learning the story of Thanksgiving.

A club has been organized in Miss Clee Eatmon's third grade, "A-Help-One-Another Club." Their project for this month is about Thanksgiving. They have a table that will occupy things to represent The Pioneer Home. The blackboard behind the table will be used as a background. They are dressing dolls in Pilgrim costumes made from colorful paper.

PICTURES

For a glimpse of beauty and for information from a map visit Mrs. Sarah May's fifth and sixth grade. Found there also are two lovely colored pictures of N. C. Mountains. Miss Edith Farmer is letting them use her painting, "The Boy With The Rabbit," for their study.

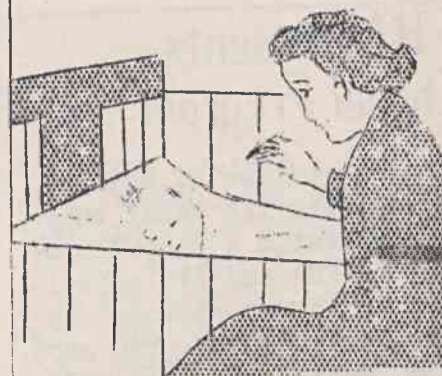

Mrs. Emogene Evan's seventh and eighth grade have finished their verb booklets. They have a new student, Fannie O'Neal.
