

Special Honors Go To Juniors In Chapel

Ten juniors received awards in chapel for each having sold $50 or more magazine subscriptions.

If it had not been for the efforts of these students, their sponsor admits, the class would not have reached its goal or have broken the record of past junior classes.

The students selling $50 or more of subscriptions were Rex Vick, Roland Stone, Joan Brannon, Ray Fulghum, Joyce Thompson, Nelda Mae High, Sonja Lamm, Katherine Whitley, Mack Burgess, and Billy Liles.

Rex Vick and Roland Stone were high salesman with $138.05 and $89.75 respectively.

Rex received an Ansco flash bulb camera and

Roland Stone, one ticket to the Dixie Classic ball games.

The others received Oscars for their salesmanship.

This year's class had the largest number of pupils of any junior class of Bailey to sell more than $50 worth of magazine subscriptions.

The class sold a total of $1129.15 worth of subscriptions, or $81.75 more than the class of last year.

ALUMNI

(Continued from page 13)

Supply Company in Raleigh, N. C., is Romaine Edwards, '50. Also in Raleigh is Barbara High, '51, at the State Health Department.

BAILEY Theater

Fri-Sat-12-24, 25

DOUBLE FEATURE

Outlaw Stallion

ALSO

Miss Robin Crusoe

Sun-Mon-12-26, 27

The Raid

Sun-Mon-1-2, 3

Hell Below Zero

We wish you

A

Merry Christmas

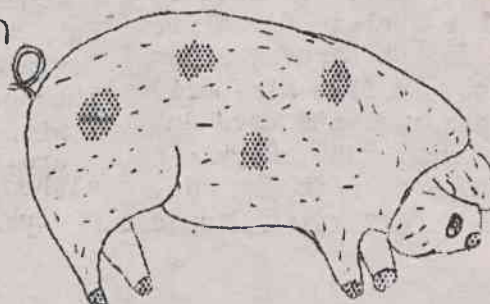

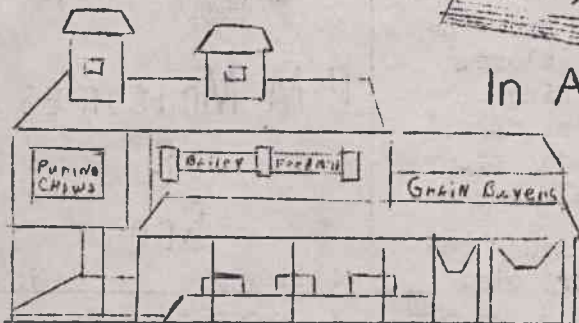

Happy New Year

When You Deal
It's Like Putting

With Our Mill
Money In The Bank

In Addition

We Buy Corn

We Buy Hogs

Merry Christmas

BAILEY FEED MILL