

Fads In Fashions -----By Lane Farmer

January, a month of new beginnings, resolutions, adds to the world of fashions as well as to the world itself. Since it is a month of predictions, let's look into the fashion year of 1955 and see what is in store.

In materials, wrinkle proof linen will be a big hit.

Dresses styled similar to the one featured will stay fashionable throughout 1955. Because of the small waistline and the flared skirt this dress is figure flattering to practically any girl.

Colors will take on a new look. So-considered-clashing colors will be featured together. Purple slacks and red shirts are examples. Don't shudder! They really deserve a second look.

Boys too, will be daring in both colors and styles. The neatest boy and girl of the month are John Robert Lamm and Shelby Jean Williams.
