Rudd Discusses New Farm Program

Rudd, who is from the Rocky Mount Social Security Office, gave a talk this month to the local agricultural department about the new social security program for farmers.

This program is compulsory for farmers and any laborer who is paid as much as $100 a year.

Further information concerning the new program will be mailed to all farmers in February.

Boys Read Many Magazines

All the nationally known magazines are subscribed for by the local agricultural department.

The purposes of these magazines are to keep the farm boys up-to-date on all the new and important farm news, to encourage the FFA students to read more, and to furnish the farmers who use the shop with all the important news.

These magazines are the cheapest source of farm news for the farmers in this neighborhood, Supervisor Wells states.

Ag. Boys Work On Program

Different jobs are being undertaken in the agricultural department. These jobs, or projects as they are sometimes called, are for use in the students' homes, and, as Wells, the advisor states, also help the student's grade.

Cedar chests are being made by Henry Brantley, Wesley Medlin, Raymond Boykin, J. A. Griffin, Jimmy Bennett, Ray Peele, and L. B. Adams.

Marshall High is working on a cedar wardrobe; Marion Warren, a grill to a hot rod; Dale Wells, a bookcase; A. W. Pitts, a hog feeder; Edwin Finch, a kitchen cabinet; Robert

AG. BOYS MAKE SPEECHES

Senior, juniors, and sophomore boys who are taking agriculture made speeches for part of their mid-term grade. These speeches could cover any subject pertaining to agriculture.

MASTER PIECE OF MONTH

This month's master piece built at the shop was an igloo made by Jimmy Bennett and his little Eskimos.

Whitley, a table; and Carol Bottoms is refinishing a table.
