

Lunchroom Rates Highest In Co. — 97½

With a grade of 97½ the Bailey lunch room rates the highest in Nash County. State Board of Health Inspector of North Carolina declares that Bailey High School has one of the "best lunch rooms in Nash County."

Small and unavoidable items led to loss of the 2½ points.

Items causing the loss of points were rough walls, non-closing doors, and the iron-colored water.

In addition to the $347.44, Fries told the Vocational Departments that they were entitled to use 75 cents out of the book fee paid by each student enrolled in these departments. This amounted to $57.55 for the Agriculture Department and $57. for the Home Ec Department.

As new adaptations are expected to be made for the social studies next year, Fries stated that there would be no accumulation of fees in 1955-'56.
