

Classes Name Leaders; Activities Vary Throughout Year

During the year various activities—election of officers, presentation of plays, campaigns, naming of grade mothers, and many others—have been carried out by the high school classes.

Seniors, Juniors

Sponsored by Miss Edith Farmer, the senior class of 38 students, 20 girls and 18 boys, has as its president, Billy Liles; vice president, Rex Vick; secretary, Elsie Eatmon; treasurer, L. B. Adams; social chairman, Charles Rhodes; and historian, Henry Brantley. For grademothers they named Mrs. J. M. Burgess, Mrs. Hugh Vick, Mrs. Drexel Rhodes, Mrs. J. R. Thompson, and Mrs. Robey Lamm; and for mascots, Jewel Kay Christian and Linwood Stone.

Following their play, "Take Your Medicine", November 11, the seniors honored Ben Etheridge, director, and Miss Farmer with a party.

SENIOR DAY

They attended senior day at Greenville on October 6 and State College on December 10.

Christmas holidays did not stop the activities of the seniors. They sent a gift to Glendora Wilder, a sick student; played a basketball game with Middlesex; and their grademothers gave them a party and dance.

During January and February they were busy measuring for caps and gowns, selecting diploma covers, invitations, and calling cards.

The juniors, sponsored by Mrs. L. T. Lassiter, have as officers, president, James Wells; vice president, Charles Williams; secretary, Mary Ella Glover; and treasurers, Sonja Manning and Dale Wells. Serving as their grademothers are Mrs. J. H. Wells, Mrs. J. W. Meacombs, Mrs. L. E. Vick, Mrs. T. V. Lamm, Mrs. M. H. Glover, Mrs. E. T. Manning, and Mrs. C. V. Wells.

Beginning September 30 and ending October 3, the junior magazine drive netted $1827.87, or approximately $700 more than any previous drive at Bailey High School. Of this amount the class received $613.56 profit. Keith Glover was high salesman, selling a total of $201.93 worth of subscriptions.

At Christmas the juniors sent money to CARE. They were entertained at a New Year's Eve party and dance in the cafeteria.

Sophomores

Sponsoring the sophomore classes are Mrs. Howard Farmer and W. G. Edwards. Beginning the year with 61 students, the classes now enroll 54.

Officers in Mrs. Farmer's class are president, Shirley Williams; vice president, Diane Tapp; secretary, Audrey Finch; treasurer, Sue Weaver; and social chairman, Sara Peele.

Mrs. Farmer's class went caroling at Christmas and were served refreshments by their grademothers, Mrs. Norman Finch, Mrs. Paul Peele, Mrs. M. W. Weaver, and Mrs. John McKeel.

Together the two sophomore classes played Santa Claus to a needy family at Christmas by presenting to them food and clothing.

The officers of W. G. Edwards' class are president, Jimmy Dew; vice president, Jeff Denton; secretary, June Vick; treasurer, Grady Parker; and historian, Roselyn Turnage. Mrs. Jack Dew, Mrs. A. J. Glover, Mrs. Vester Denton, Mrs. John Hathaway, Mrs. Ruby Vick, and Mrs. Doyt Bryant are grademothers.

Freshmen

Officers in Miss Oglesby's class are president, Christie Leigh Finch; vice president, Delores Johnson; secretary, Kay Wiggs; treasurer, Boots Harris; social chairman, James Ray Lamm; and reporter, Colia Pitts May.

Collecting money, Miss Oglesby's class bought groceries for a needy family at Christmas.

They had a Christmas Party in the Cafeteria sponsored by their grademothers, Mrs. Fred Harris, Mrs. Johnnie Burgess, Mrs. Atlas Wiggs, and Mrs. T. C. May.

Officers in W. H. Westall's class are president, Hodges Privette; vice president, Jasper Horton; secretary, Fannie Ruth Howell; and treasurer, J. W. Bissette.

A party, given by their grademothers, Mrs. Wade Privette and Mrs. Grover Bissette, set the Christmas spirit for this class.
