

Jrs. Entertain Srs. In Night Club Setting

Juniors transformed the Club Hotel Cherry into a nightclub, affirm the seniors, by the "lavish" decorations, stage entertainment, and $10 "cover charge" for their annual Junior-Senior Banquet.

Easels displaying pictures of the "stars" of the evening's program were placed in the corridor.

DECORATIONS

With a background of soft piano music by Louise Wells and vocal solos by Yvonne Meacomes, the seniors were escorted to tables decorated with top hat containers filled with pink flowers and green foliage interspersed with senior "stars", pictures of individual seniors in the center of silver stars.

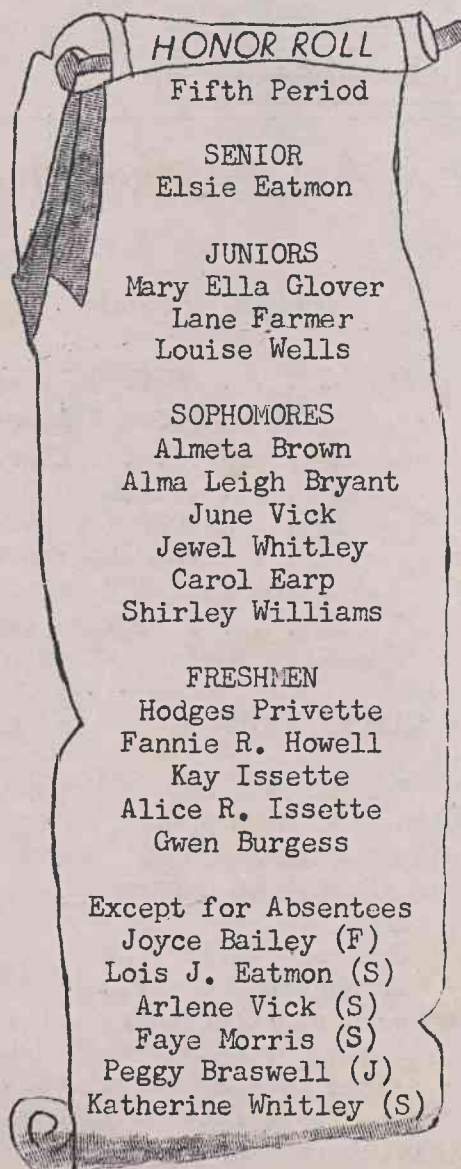

There they were served shrimp cocktails, the first of a five course dinner, beneath a canopy of hundreds of glittering stars.

ENTERTAINMENT

After the dinner, James Wells, junior president, "Tipped the Juniors' Hat to the Seniors", and Billy Liles, senior president, returned the greeting with an affirmation that "Our Hats Are in the Ring". Principal Weaver then spoke on the change from "The Frosh's Cap to the Senior's Top Hat".

James Wells acted as master of ceremonies for the floorshow that followed. First on the program was "the gentleman with the 'Top Hat, White Tie, and Tails'", Fred Astaire (Johnny Hagwood), followed by the Broadway Rhythms, junior girls' singing "Rock and Roll Waltz", while Mr. and Mrs. John H. Wells danced. Vickie Louise Corbett and Susan Marsha Brock sang and danced two numbers. Then came "Limber Loveliness" featuring Linda Strickland, executing her special acrobatic feats. Yvonne Meacomes sang the immortal "Stardust". The final number was "A Key To Happiness" by the Southern Belles" (junior girls). Mrs. Laurine Lassiter is the junior sponsor.

Seniors Determine Their Right Of Privileges

In a few days the seniors of Bailey High School will be enjoying senior privileges if they have met the requirements set up by the high school faculty last fall.

According to the standards set, the privilege is determined on the basis of class cooperation and individual effort.

FOR THE CLASS AS A WHOLE:

1. Cooperate with and assist sponsor and class.
2. Have right kind of attitude toward school policies.
3. Be punctual for class practices.
4. Accept responsibility--act like Seniors.
5. Set good examples for other classes.
6. Respect school regulations. Obey them.
7. Class is not to support a student in his wrongdoing.
8. High per cent of attendance. 95%

FOR THE INDIVIDUAL STUDENT:

1. "B" average on school work for second term.
2. Parents' consent.
3. "B" average on conduct for the year.
4. No skipping class or school of any kind.
5. All books in and fines and fees paid.
6. Not over 5 unexcused absences.
7. Be honest, courteous, possess self-control.
8. Be a lady or gentleman at all times.
9. Respect school property.
10. Approved by sponsor.
