

Only Juniors Escape Series Of Tests

All classes except the juniors have come under the county testing program this year.

To discover the seniors' abilities and interests, C. H. Fries, Assistant County Superintendent, gave them an Aptitude and Interest Inventory Test earlier this spring.

The ninth grade took the Aptitude Test last fall to determine in part the subjects each should take.

Since these tests, Fries has been advising each senior individually on the basis of tests results and information recorded on Cumulative Folders.

The fourth, seventh, and tenth grades took the IQ tests in the spring. Achievement tests were

2 TEACHERS IN LINE FOR COUNTY PRESIDENTS

Bailey teachers, Miss Idalia Oglosby and Miss Edith Farmer, were installed as county officers at the annual county NCEA banquet this month. Miss Oglosby will be serving as vice president of the county NCEA unit; Miss Farmer, vice president of the county Class Room Teachers.

Both teachers are in line for president of their respective associations next year. Miss Oglosby was president of the Class Room Teachers this year.
