

The homes of tomorrow are in the hands of the youth of today.

19	OCTOBER						56
	1	2	3	4	5	6
7	8	9	10	11	12	13
14	15	16	17	18	19	20
21	22	23	24	25	26	27
28	29	30	31

Chapt. Name Mothers

Eight chapter mothers will serve the FHA club this year.

The mothers named for this duty are Mrs. L. E. Vick, Mrs. B. C. Boykin, Mrs. Ralph Strickland, Mrs. J. H. Wells, Mrs. M. H. Glover, Mrs. J. W. Meacomes, Mrs. Jake Fulghum, and Mrs. Willis Farmer.

These mothers will be invited to attend all FHA activities and are expected to assist Mrs. Whicker and the girls when necessary.

BHS PROVIDES PRES.

For the first time in several years, Bailey merits an officer of the Nash-Franklin County FHA Club.

Senior BARBARA BOYKIN will preside at the bi-county meeting next spring.

Girls Declare Trip 'Lifetime Experience'

"It is an experience we'll never forget," said four BHS students in relating facts about their trip to Chicago for the Future Homemakers of America Convention this summer.

Traveling by train, SONJA MANNING and LANE FARMER, seniors, and ARLENE VICK and SUE WEAVER, juniors, attended the FHA convention held at the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago, July 1-7. Two of the delegates were sponsored by the chapter, which paid half their expenses, and the other two paid all their expenses.

THEME

The theme of the convention was "You, in Home, Chapter, Community, and School". This topic was the main discussion in assemblies and small discussion groups.

Mrs. Billie Davis and Samuel Brownell were the keynote speakers for the week.

The Bailey girls will give a skit at the district rally, in October on their experiences at Chicago.

GIRLS AWAIT INITIATION

Initiation day, October 2, is "anticipated" by freshmen FHA'ers.

A committee met last week to plan the initiation and the installation service that will take place in the school auditorium on Tuesday night, October 2.

Following the service, the girls are planning a weiner roast on the school ground.

S. Manning Heads Club

SONJA MANNING will lead FHA'ers for the '56-'57 term, under the sponsorship of Mrs. Dean Whicker. Future Homemakers organized and voted upon the following officers: president, SONJA MANNING; vice president, SUE WEAVER; secretary, PEGGY BRASWELL; treasurer, MARY ELLA GLOVER; parliamentarian, SARA PEELE; historian, KEITH GLOVER; reporter, AIMETA BROWN; program chairman, LANE FARMER; refreshment chairman, JO ELLEN FINCH; social chairman, AUDREY FINCH; and song-leaders, YVONNE MEACOMES and GWEN BURGESS.

For The Best In
Hair Styling

VISIT

Lillian's

BEAUTY

SHOP

Phone 306-1
Bailey, N.C.