

Have You ? - - - - - K. V. Glover

NOTICED? How the Ivy League is predominating both boys' and girls' clothes this year?

That stripes are a fad this year? Prisoners can now be in style.

The pretty smile that Margie Hinton flashes at everyone?

How popular Mrs. Farmer is at lunch? (Wonder what she brings in her lunch box.)

How clean the building looks? Credit is due to the new janitor and maid.

HELPED? Miss Oglesby keep the library in correct order?

WONDERED? When the state fair will be? Plan to go, you'll have a wonderful time.

SEEN? The senior triplets-- Numa Finch, Ray Brantley, and Richard Privette--wearing their Scotch plaid jackets? They are real neat, boys.

All the new fall shirts the boys and girls are wearing? Aren't they the most?

Billy Boykin's and Derald Glover's hair that suddenly turned black? We hope it wasn't dyed to hide gray hair.

Miss Oglesby's new hair style--wearing fashionable hairpieces in her hair? It is most attractive.

MET? Mr. Hilburn, the new band teacher and Mrs. Whicker, the new home ec. teacher? They're no squares.

PROMISED? To cut down on the noise and start studying? Good for you!

SUBSCRIBED? To a magazine from a member of the junior class?

READ? Bobbie Lou Batts' column in the Wilson Daily Times?

HEARD? About the Japanese penpals BHS students have? It seems to be an interesting experience.

Who the different classes will play in the tournaments? If not, read the sports page.

The seniors have won every contest this year-- P.T.A. membership drive, BUGLE SUBSCRIPTION drive, and P.T.A.attendance? Congratulations! No! Mrs. Lasser does not bribe them!

ENJOYED RECENTLY? Richard Privette's imitation of the one and only Elvis Presley?
