

J. Wells Serves As President 3 Yrs. ; Other Classes Vote For Officers

Winning the presidency of his class for the third time, JAMES WELLS, according to his classmates, received this honor "because of his popularity". Previous to his senior year James was class president in his freshman and junior years.

CHARLES WILLIAMS was sophomore president of the 1957 class. James served as vice president that year.

JUNIOR OFFICERS

ALMETA BROWN, junior president, has as her assistants KATY HORTON, ROSELYN TURNAGE, and SUE WEAVER as vice president, secretary, and treasurer in order named.

For home room purposes the juniors have class room officers: KATY HORTON and ALMETA BROWN as presidents, JIMMY DEW and SHIRLEY WILLIAMS as vice presidents, ROSELYN TURNAGE and LOIS JEAN EATMON as secretaries, and SUE WEAVER and JEFF DENTON as treasurers.

SOPH. OFFICERS

Lower classmen have not combined their forces, leaving each class to have separate officers. Those making up the list in W. H. Westall's sophomore class are JASPER HORTON, president, with BETH HARRIS, CELIA MAY, and GWEN BUR-GESS, vice president, secretary, and treasurer.

Sharing the honors in Miss Idalia Oglesby's home room are CHRISTY FINCH, HODGES PRIVETTE, KAYE WIGGS, FANNIE RUTH HOWELL, ELAINE EDWARDS, AND SUE BISSETTE, holding the offices of president, vice president, secretary, treasurer, reporter, and social chairman.
