Eddie Joe Pitts, Seber Riley, Harold Vick, and C. V. Wells.

UNQUALIFIED MEMBERS

Four others who did not receive their pins because they were not qualified are Bobby Crawford, Kay Dew, Billy Ray Liles, and Bobby O'Neal. Theirs will be presented to them later.

A barbecue chicken supper was served before the initiation.

Team Places Fifth

Bailey's Parliamentary Procedure team tied for fifth place with Nashville in the first Federation contest this month at Nashville.

Representing Bailey was James Wells, Charles Williams, Dale Wells, Carrol Bottoms, Lewis Williams, J. R. Bissette, and Adviser Wells.

The Nash-Edgecombe Federation, composed of eleven FFA Chapters, gives this contest to promote training in speaking and conducting business meetings.

AG. BOYS ATTEND FAIR

Approximately 55 FFA members accompanied Adviser John H. Wells to the State Fair last Friday.

Exhibit halls where crops, livestock, and farm machinery were kept were places of interest visited by the members.

Transportation was furnished by the school activity bus.

Bissette First; Dew Second In Sales

Leading as Bailey's high salesman in the Junior Tobacco Show and Sale, at Rocky Mount, was J. W. BISSETTE with a total of $1570 dollars.

SECOND HIGH

JIMMY DEW was second high with $1150 dollars.

Other boys that sold their tobacco were A. W. PITTS, DALE WELLS, RAY PEELE, CHARLES WILLIAMS, and RANDAL HINTON

COMPANY TOUR

To learn what goes on after the tobacco is sold was the purpose of a tour taken through the Lea Tobacco Company before the sale.

Taking part in the tour was Adviser Wells, VENTON WELLS, EDWARD WILLIAMS, JAMES WELLS, DALE WELLS, and CHARLES WILLIAMS.
