

4-H Members Witness Applied Ideas

Making housekeeping easier and feeding beef and swine were demonstrations made to Bailey High School 4-H Club members at their regular monthly meeting.

For the girls a polishing rag and dust mop were used to illustrate the easier way to housekeeping, and for the boys, corn, cornmeal, salt, and water were recommended as feed for beef and swine.

The 4-H members named for their president, CHRISTIE FINCH; vice president, HODGES PRIVETTE; secretary, SUE BISSETTE; devotional leader, BOBBIE LOU BATTS; song leaders, KAYE WIGGS and JIMMY "JUNIOR" WELLS; and teacher-sponsor, W. G. Edwards.

CALLING FOR HELP

The Virginia Dare Book Club desires to get in touch with some person willing to become the leader of a Girls Scouts organization in Bailey. You may choose your co-leader.

If we do not find a person, many of Bailey's younger girls will be disappointed. If interested--and we truly hope you are--please contact Mrs. Eunice Peele.

Bailey Girl Competes In Miss Nash Co. Finals

Ranking among the five finalists in the Miss Nash County Contest at Nashville's Harvest Day Festival, October 18, was Bailey's representative, Lane Farmer.

All contestants rode in the parade, were presented on the speaker's platform, were entertained at the home of Harold Cooley for whom the day is dedicated, had dinner with the judges, and then participated in the contest in the school auditorium that evening.

According to Lane, meeting and talking with the Maid of Cotton, "Pat" Cowden, and the Tobacco Queen, Shirley Bagwell, who were two of the judges was "a most enjoyable and rewarding experience."

Selection for Miss and Mrs. Nash County was based on personality, appearance, poise, mannerisms, and beauty.

Representing Bailey in the Mrs. Nash County Contest was Mrs. Dan Christain.
