

Juniors Surpass Quota Set In Contest

Exceeding their $1500 magazine sales quota, the 1956 juniors continued to uphold the record established by former junior classes over the past several years.

Total subscriptions sales came to $1547.88. Even though the class reached its goal, it did not top the dollar sales of last year's juniors.

FIRST PLACE WINNERS

In the contest, JIMMY DEW captured first place by selling $178.84 worth of magazine subscriptions. He will receive as an award a wrist watch.

DIANE TAPP, second high with sales amounting to $170.59, will receive two tickets to the Dixie Classics.

In third place, SARAH ANN PEELE, with sales of $139.59, will receive 30 credits toward a gift choice.

CERTIFICATE WINNERS

Fourteen students who sold $30 or more in subscriptions will be presented Salesmanship Certificates. These salesmen were KATY HORTON, ANDREA BISSETTE, LEWIS WILLIAMS, ALMA LEIGH BRYANT, JEANETTE EATMAN, CAROLYN GLOVER, JOAN JOYNER, SARAH ANN PEELE, DIANE TAPP, JIMMY DEW, RANDAL HINTON, ADRIAN MITCHELL, JUNE VICK, and SUE WEAVER.

Special prize winners, whose names were drawn from the $10. and $30. clubs were KATY HORTON and CAROLYN GLOVER.

Elementary News - - - - - CHRISTY FINCH

Bailey elementary grades continue to organize clubs, name grademothers, study different courses; two rooms are planning for important national events in the near future.

Students in Mrs. Harvey Evans' eighth grade are taking interest in science by working out experiments and using a microscope twice a week. The importance of reading and spelling is being stressed and plans for American Education Week are in the making.

"INTO YOUR TEENS"

Miss Rachel Bissette's seventh grade has organized an "Into Your Teens" club. Officers named were president, Judy Smith; vice president, Maxine Liles; secretary and treasurer, Mary Elizabeth Glover. Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Dan Christian, Mrs. M. B. Glover, and Mrs. Jasper Finch, are grademothers.

For Mrs. Ruby B. Boykin's fifth and sixth room, grademothers are Mrs. Louis Watson, Mrs. Louis Glover, Mrs. R. S. Harrison, Mrs. J. C. Finch, and Mrs. Robert Beard.

Winning for the second month, Mrs. T. C. May and her fifth graders walked away again with the PTA banner. Officers for the Busy Bees Club are president, Jimmy Stott; vice president, Ann Eatmon;

The two competing teams were led by Katy June Horton and Almata Brown. Katy's team, as winners, were served drinks by the losing team.

secretary, Helen Francis; treasurer, Grady Haskins; and program chairman, Kay Strickland.

Losing one student, Harris Perry, Miss Ida Marie Parker's fourth grade now has a total of 36 students. Betsy May and Mickey Narron represented the class at the District Teachers meeting in Raleigh.

Serving as officers in Mrs. Olivia P. Barnes' room are president, Rachel Batts; vice president, Stanley Eatmon; secretary, Faye Carroll; treasurer, Ann Wells; and program chairman, Barbara Rhodes. A Health and Safety Club has also been organized.

"READING HELPERS"

Sponsoring the third grade is Miss Clee Eatmon. A club, "The Reading Helpers", has been organized to help the students of different levels of reading.

Mrs. Altermise Glover's second grade is making flags of different countries. They celebrated the Anniversary of the United Nations by having a party.

Making a sound chart in connection with their reading is what Mrs. Horace Meacomes' first and second grade combination is working toward now. It is hoped by Mrs. Meacomes that by the end of the year most of the students will know all the letters and their sounds.

Mrs. Effie Mae Hagwood's first grade is studying about the fall colors, and how birds, animals, and people, prepare for the winter.