

H.E.C. II Serves Teachers

Second year girls honored high school teachers at a tea this month as part of their entertainment unit.

Mrs. Dean Whicker's first and second period home economics girls wrote formal invitations to faculty members inviting them to the teas that they were required to give as a project in their entertainment course.

TEACHERS ATTENDING

Attending the first period tea were Miss Idalia Oglesby, W. G. Edwards, W. H. Westall, and Miss Edith Farmer, while Mrs. Howard Farmer, Mrs. L. T. Lassiter, and M. W. Weaver joined the second period girls for refreshments.

CHECKERBOARD SANDWICHES

Because teachers were interested in the sandwiches served at the teas, the recipes are given below.

Editor

Assemble these supplies:
 3  $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch slices of whole-wheat bread
 3  $\frac{1}{2}$ -inch slices of white bread
 $\frac{1}{2}$  cup butter or margarine
 1 tablespoon minced pimento

Steps in preparation:

1. Trim crust off bread, keeping all slices the same size.
2. Cream butter until soft; mince pimento and add to butter.
3. Spread two large "club" sandwiches with the mixture, one with white in the middle and whole-wheat on the outside

The homes of tomorrow
 are in the hands of the youth of today

and the other the reverse.

4. Wrap in waxed paper and damp towel and chill for several hours.
5. Remove from the refrigerator and cut sandwiches into thirds. Transpose the two middle sections and fix them in place with more mixture.
6. Again wrap in waxed paper and then in damp towel. Place on a flat tray under a light weight in refrigerator.
7. Remove and cut checkerboards off in  $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch slices to serve.

Recipe for PINWHEEL SANDWICHES will be published next month. Editor

Girls Stage Dance

Music, laughter, and a general hilarious spirit raged in the school cafeteria as the FHA sponsored a sock hop earlier this month.

Lasting from 7:30 till 10:30 P.M., the dance offered the latest in bop and waltz music.

Since the purpose of the dance was to build up the FHA treasury, twenty-five cents admission was charged to each of the 150 persons attending.

Audrey Finch served as social chairman for the event.

Class Visits Homes

Visits to Linstone homes provided this month a basis for a unit in interior decoration for Home Economics III.

Mrs. Dean Whicker's third year home economics girls visited two Linstone homes in Wilson that were open for public inspection, each student keeping in mind the interior decorating course that would be required in the near future.

For That Added
 Touch Of Beauty

VISIT OR CALL

Lillian's Beauty Shop

Bailey, N. C.

Phone 278-7