

County Clubs Stage Banquet Here

Bailey High School's cafeteria was the scene of the Nash County annual Home Demonstration Achievement Banquet earlier this month. Mrs. John F. Griffin, Jr., from the Dorches community was presiding officer. Following the invocation, Mrs. W. C. Bissette, 1st vice president extended the welcome and recognized outstanding guests. Presenting the program were Mrs. J. J. Ellen, county music chairman; Mrs. Rudolph Smith, county recreation chairman; and O. B. Copeland, from the division of agricultural information.

RECOGNITION

Mrs. Ann M. Inscoe, Home Agent, acknowledged outstanding club members. Those receiving special-project recognition were named by Mrs. E. J. Drake, president of the Castalia Club.

In charge of the installation service was Mrs. C. F. McIntyre, Home Demonstration Club Woman of the Year.

If An Hour Were Added To The Day--What?

Studying? Reading? Sleeping? Talking? If there were twenty-five hours in each day how would you spend that extra hour?

Quotes sophomore Fannie Ruth Howell, "Sleep." She then states, "It would probably be automatically filled, though, just as the rest of my hours are."

Coming from Marjorie Hinton, a freshman, was the reply, "Studying."

Wisely stated Shirley Williams, "I'd work on an interesting hobby."

As for me, I'd need to use it to study everything concerning english. Namely punctuating, captialization, and spelling. You have probably suspected that it affects my journalism. But can you possibly imagine me using a hole hour studying when there is so many more ac-clubs was served:

- TOMATO JUICE
- TURKEY DRESSING
- CRANBERRY SAUCE
- TURNIP GREENS CANDIED YAMS
- FIELD PEAS
- CELERY CARROTS
- AMBROSIA AND COOKIES

tivities going on?

The teachers would use this extra hour assigning us more lessons; consequently we wouldn't be any better off. It would be fun to try for awhile though. Alice Ruth Issette
