The Sub—

As the starting six take their places on the court, the sub settles back to warm her spot on the bench. Sharing the excitement of the points scored, she inwardly wishes it were she, but spectators never know her feelings.

Bailey's score tops the opposing team's by 15 points in the closing minutes of the fourth quarter. The coach tells the sub to take the star forward's place. With her spine tingling and butterflies in her stomach, she reports to the scorer's stand.

While the sub awaits her chance to play, the referee throws the ball to center, and the buzzer sounds; the game is over.

"Maybe next time.....," she sighs.

Coach Appraises Non-Conference Games

As the "Hornets" swarm into county competition, Bailey has played six non-conference games. In these games the girls racked up four wins and the boys remain undefeated.

In discussion with the coach, he made these remarks about the non-conference games:

"In only one or two games have the teams not played as well as they should; nevertheless, I am well pleased with the way they have played.

COUNTY TEAMS

"Compared with county teams, non-conference ones do not present as tough competition. Even though Bailey out-plays the opposition in every respect, tall forwards of opposing teams hurt Bailey.

BAILEY'S TEAM

"The teams spirit is good. In the past I have coached teams who were better, but did not work as hard as this year's teams.

"WYNE BURN is a diligent player and has improved 100% from last year. I hope he continues to do so.

"I am glad that the subs are getting a chance to play and gain experience. This will be a help to
