

Daily Bill Gives Estimated Lunch Cost

To know what it costs to feed Bailey students and teachers eating in the lunchroom, one can get an estimate from the cost of one day's lunch, according to Mrs. Kermit Lewis. The day's meal come to $46.18.

If the question What does a day's lunch cost? is asked, Mrs. Lewis has only to refer to the records kept of each day's menu. The following menu was served January 2, 1957:

Turkey and Hard Boiled Egg Salad (on Lettuce)
 Crackers Pinto Beans
 Bread Butter
 Purple plums (Chilled)
 Milk (plain)

The cost of the food for that day was

Lettuce	$ 2.50
Bread	7.65
Crackers	6.78
Milk	29.25
Total	$46.18

Free lunches for this day numbered 30; paid lunches 382. "This is an average of 412 plates each day," quotes Mrs. Lewis.

The amount of fees that day totaled $77.80. Of this amount, $46.18 was spent for food; $9.50 for labor. Subtracting the expenses from the $77.80 income, one gets a profit of $22.12 for the day.

There are three seniors, two juniors, six sophomores, and seven freshmen on the girls basketball squad.

Grades Planning For Second Semester - - - C. FINCH

For the second semester of school, each grade is preparing for various projects, chapel programs, or social activities.

The main interest in Mrs. Harvey Even's eighth grade was preparing for a chapel program and planning for a Hobby Show.

Each student in Miss Rachel Bissette's seventh grade wishes to express his appreciation to Mrs. Jasper Finch, Mrs. Dan Christian, Mrs. Fred Smith, and Mrs. Broadus Glover for the lovely party they received at Christmas.

CHAPEL PROGRAM

Working on a chapel program to be presented in February, is keeping Mrs. Ruth Underwood's sixth graders busy. They also express a welcome to three new students: Ray Massey, Donnie Page, and Barbara Page.

Mrs. Ruby B. Boykin's fifth and sixth grade combination are making a booklet on "Food". A chapel program is also being planned.

Winning again for the fifth time, Mrs. T. C. May's fifth graders walked away with the PTA banner. Pictures showing January as the snow month are also being drawn by the students.

ESKIMO SCENE

Students in Miss Ida Marie Parker's fourth grade brought their toys to school this month. A scene showing the Eskimo life is being planned by the room, and the class is glad to welcome a new student, Dennis Page.

Mrs. Olivia P. Barnes has divided her third and fourth grade combination into individual groups. Each group is working on a different project. The projects consist of a frieze, posters, and displays. The class also welcomes three new students; Dianne Strickland, Vicky Brown, and Danny Brown.

Planning an aquarium is keeping Miss Clee Eatmon's third grade busy with the help of their reading, which is their basic interest.

"Hilltop Farm" is the name that Mrs. Altermise Glover's second graders are using for the miniature farm they are building.

PTA SEES FILM

"Unsuspected", a film revealing the story of tuberculosis, was shown at this month's meeting of the PTA.

Two officials from the tuberculosis association announced plans for the mobile X-ray unit to visit Bailey in February.

Mrs. T. C. May's fifth grade in elementary grades and Miss Edith Farmer's ninth grade in high school won the banners for having the highest percentage of parents present.

Teacher: "That's five times this week you have come to class unprepared. Have you anything to say for yourself?"

Student: "Yes, sir, I'm sure glad it's Friday."
