

L. Strickland Reigns As Miss Bailey

From the seven contestants competing in the Miss Bailey Christmas parade contest, representing the homerooms in high school, Lynda Anne Strickland received the honor.

All high school students cast their vote on the basis of beauty, poise, and personality.

The other six contestants were Peggy Eatmon, freshmen; Christie Finch and Tillie Taylor, sophomores; Jewel Whitley and Audrey Finch, juniors; and Barbara Boykin, senior.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU
JANUARY

- 3 Tony Morgan
- 9 Elaine Manning
Sonja Manning
Gerald Bennett
- 11 Jeanette Eatmon
- 14 Numa Finch
- 15 Delores Johnson
Marie Prince
- 17 Bobby Crawford
- 19 Brenda Glover
- 20 Allie Hugh Johnson
- 24 Kaye Wiggs
- 26 James Ray Lamm
- 30 Joyce Joyner
- 31 Janet Weaver
Jimmy Wells, Jr.

8th Gr. Presents Farce; Fresh Stage Play

Mrs. Harvey Evans eighth grade entertained the school with a farce play entitled "Henry, The Model Husband."

For the devotions, Kay Thompson read Bible verses and Betty Beard sang "He".

Harold Patterson took the leading role in the play as Henry Peck. Frances Peck was played by Linda Lamm, and Barbara Sue Lamm portrayed her mother.

Bailey band provided the music for students to enter and exit chapel.

Dicken's CHRISTMAS CAROL was presented by Miss Edith Farmer's freshman as the December chapel program.

Don English, playing the leading role of Scrooge, was accompanied by 13 other freshmen participating in the play. In addition, eight girls made up the chorus, and nine students took part in the Nativity scene.

Mark Thompson, a first grader, played Tiny Tim.

Happy Motoring

Starts At The Sign

Corbett Oil Co.

PHONE 2286

BAILEY, N.C.

Whatever your style of painting,
you'll do it twice as easy, twice as fast with

Glidden's Spread Satin
& Gloss

It dries quickly and is waterproof!

W.H. Farmer Bro., Inc.

Phone 201-1
Bailey, N. C.